

Cibola County Road 7, Cubero, New Mexico

(Section 14)

The project is in Cubero, in west-central New Mexico. The project protects Cibola County Road #7 from erosion caused by an unnamed arroyo. The construction consists of 700 linear feet of gabions and geo-web. Construction was complete in February 2001.

Cibola County is the local sponsor for the project.

